Course in English Grammar, which broke new ground by offering to advanced students of English a comprehensive course, based on Halliday's Systemic Functional Grammar. It went beyond the merely structural, to present an integrated account of structure and function, which gives students the information they need in order to link the grammar

English Grammar : A University Course

No, "a university" is correct. The rule about a/an applies to the first sound of the following word and not the first letter. The first sound of "university" is a "y" sound, so we say "a university" in the same we we say "a yam" or "a yellow car." In the same way, we say "an honest person."

Is 'an university' more grammatically correct than 'a ...
