Santeria

Santeria is a polytheistic religion. Its deities are referred to as oricha or orisha, or alternatively as the ocha, and also as the santos ("saints"). The oricha are not gods "in the Western sense", and thus the educational anthropologist Andrés I. Pérez y Mena thought they were best described as "Yoruban ancestor spirits".

Santeria - Wikipedia

Santeria was brought to Cuba by the people of the Yoruban nations of West Africa, who were enslaved in great numbers in the first decades of the 19th century. The name "Santería" derives from the correspondences made by some devotees between the Yoruba deities called orisha s and the saints (santos) of Roman Catholic piety.
