I had four theories of what 'the great betrayal' could be. It was neither of them, though one was close. An enjoyable finale to a series I liked. As I fluctuated between 4 and 5 stars for this series as a whole, I'm ending it at 5 for the fond memories. 4,5/5; will return to Holmberg's books again in the future.

The Great Betrayal is one of those books you can't put down until the end. I had to know how things would turn out for Leslie, she was seriously troubled from the tragedy that happened right at the beginning. That loss was like a cloud hanging over the rest of the novel and the twist at the end is CRAZY but totally plausible.
