The Turtle of Oman - HarperCollins

THE TURTLE OF OMAN has a lyrical style and languid pace that will stick with readers. The story is both educational in its portrait of the Arabian country and its people (and all the facts Asef lists between the pages about turtles, foxes and more), and moving, as readers see the love Asef has for his home, and especially his grandfather, Sidi. Asef's playful, loving grandfather is well-drawn, and readers can't help but be envious of their endless stream-of-consciousness conversations ...
